
PNT 3/9/66

Associated Press

FREED—George John Gesner, 29, a former Army nuclear weapons specialist, was freed from Federal prison in Leavenworth, Kan., yesterday following dismissal of charges that he transmitted atomic information to the Russians. The government said it lacked sufficient evidence to retry him. An earlier conviction was overturned by the Federal Courts.